

It will be in Erzurum city. The APV of the project will be between 18-21 January. We will cover %100 of APV projects (travel-accomodation,food) expenses.

And The Project will be between 17-24 February. We will cover %70 of travel tickets and all of their accomodation and food expenses. Participant countries are: Turkey, Bulgaria, Italy, Greece and Iceland. Each country will have 1 group leader + 4 participant.

This is the project Summary:

A Journey to Human Values Project is written by Ubuntu Youth Community under Youth in Action 1.1 Youth Exchange Program. Themes of this Project are xenafobia, racism and islamifobia. Main goal of Project is to prevent discrimination, to educate participants against racism, and determining the causes of xenophobia. According to this goal, there will be workshops and activites against the racism. We will use informal education methods. The Project will be in Erzurum/Turkey between 17-24 February 2014 and there will be one group leader and five participants from each country. Participant countries are: Turkey, Bulgaria, Italy, Greece and Iceland.

There will be only group leaders on APV project. I will inform the details of the project and will show the places where we think to realize project.

You can use just economy class travel tickets when you come. And your ticket limits for return is:
